Becoming Leaders for Tomorrow

Ms. Wheelchair Utah: Kelie Babcock
For Young Adults and Students

When: Wednesday, June 23, 2010, 4:30 to 6:30 p.m.

Where: Intermountain Medical Center, Doty Education Center, 5121 Building F (on the west side facing the Murray Central TRAX station), Cottonwood Street, Murray, Utah

What: Join us and hear from Ms. Wheelchair Utah. Her theme is “You are unique. Live it. Love it. Rock it!” See how she rolls and hear her great ideas for advocating for people with disabilities. We’ll also play some Wii video games and board games while we give you the chance meet your neighbors and talk about the issues that are important to you. We’ll provide the food.

Who: For young adults and students (high school and college), ages 13-30, with disabilities or chronic health conditions. Bring your classmates, friends, or family. Parents and professionals please join us and share your experience and support. RSVP today to help us plan for enough food.

Sponsored by the Becoming Leaders for Tomorrow (BLT) Project. Find out more at http://blt.cpd.usu.edu and RSVP to alromeo@utah.gov or 801-584-8535.

How do you roll with it?
